Ms. Darby and her husband have started DNR Security.

Q. . What made you choose the security field?

A. That is a very interesting question. I started in the security field because of my husband.

Q. How did you get started?

A. We got started originally because I started my paralegal company DNR Legal Services, and I needed a P.I. and my husband had completed some P.I. work in the past and had an opportunity to start in fugitive recovery work. So being the master mind I figured we could work together and bring in the money. However, I thought fugitive recovery was rather dangerous, especially after meeting the person he was going to work with. So I said to him, "If you are going to do it, let's just do it ourselves." So we did. We jumped in head first with a few others. We had no clue what we were doing or what it entailed. However, here we are many years later, after hard work, dedication, sacrifice and research.

Q. You have started additional businesses since. How did you know that a void was present and the community could benefit from you filling that void?

A. We have started additional businesses. I stopped doing my paralegal business and we started an entertainment business. My husband DJs and I help with the event planning. We originally started D&R Entertainment around the same time. However, as with anything you have to focus on one thing at a time to make anything good and grow.

Q. You all are avid supporters of the community. What else do you do?

A. We employ from within the community and we also give back in other ways.

We give out blankets during the winter and bottles of water during the summer. Recently we have decided to start adopting families in need. We started last year with one family of 9, both parents and kids. This year we adopted two different families. We make sure EVERYONE gets Christmas.

I have decided that our goal this year is to open a non-profit to help the less fortunate and to also supply jobs.

I LOVE US ❤️

Q. What does the future hold for Danielle Darby and/or DNR security?

A. For Danielle Darby, the future holds, my bachelors, my real-estate licenses, and my law degree. Along with more family vacations and more honeymoons. I am excited for the nonprofit to start this year and fulfilling the purpose that God has intended for me. As for DNR SFR, the future is endless. Some of our many goals, are to own our own building, become a billion dollar company and help as many people as we can.

ITALIAN POSTMAN NEVER RINGS ONCE, HOARDS MAIL INSTEAD

ROME (Reuters) - Italian police have arrested a postman from the northern town of Vicenza after finding more than half a tonne (1,100 lb) of undelivered mail stashed away in his garage.

Police were called in when workers from a recycling plant were sent to empty the garage and found 43 yellow plastic postal containers stuffed full of letters, bills, bank statements and even electoral pamphlets dating back to 2010.

The postman, who was not named, was 56 and came from the southern city of Naples, police said. They added that it was the largest ever haul of undelivered mail in Italy.

The Vicenza postal service has promised to deliver the huge pile of post, albeit several years late.

RECOGNIZING SYMPTOMS OF STROKE

We have received a numerous amount of contacts regarding individuals who have suffered strokes. Although the stroke may not be preventative, the effects may be minimal if the stroke can be caught in time so that permanent injury does not occur.

Strokeassociation.org has the mnemonic (F.A.S.T.) to remember what to look for when an emergency occurs.

ANYONE CAN HAVE A STROKE.
EVERYONE SHOULD BE READY.
